MR. AND MRS. REYNOLD BRODIE

McGREW'S CHOWDER PARTY
Mr. and Mrs. Reynold Brodie McGrew gave a double celebration on Tuesday evening, a chowder supper to welcome home Mr. Charles Hite and a wedding feast in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Restarick. Mr. and Mrs. McGrew and the bride and groom, who had just been married, arrived at the home almost with other guests. As the guests came they were presented to the bride and groom. Congratulations and good wishes were showered on the couple. A swim was enjoyed after supper was served. Later to the music of a live club the evening hours were merrily danced away. The bride and groom amid a shower of rice sped away to spend their honeymoon on the other side of the island. Mr. Charles Hite, for whom this chowder was originally planned, shared honors with the newly wedded couple.

Mr. and Mrs. McGrew's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Restarick and Mr. Charles Hite, the honor guests; Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Henshaw, Miss Dorothy Guild, Miss Ruth McChesney, Miss Martha McChesney, Mr. Cornell Franklin, Mr. Powers, Mr. E. Podmore, Mr. Cyril Damon, Mr. Watson Hallentyne, Mr. Chas. Cleveland and Mr. Charles Lyman.

MRS. HENRY F. WICHMAN'S INFORMAL LUNCHEON

Mrs. Frederick Jewett Lowrey was the honor guest at a very informal and simple luncheon on Wednesday of this week, with Mrs. Henry F. Wichman as hostess. The table center held a large flat floral dish, which had caladium leaves and maidenhair fern. It was a very unique and pretty conception.

After luncheon knitting and social chat made for a delightful afternoon.

Mrs. Wichman's guests were Mrs. Frederick Jewett Lowrey, Mrs. Alois Gattley, Mrs. A. Lewis, Jr., Mrs. James A. Kennedy, Mrs. William R. Castle, Mrs. Augustus E. Murphy, and Mrs. William A. Wall.

PUNAHOU SENIOR DANCING PARTY

The annual dancing party of the Punahou senior students was held last Monday evening at the Country Club. About 300 guests were in attendance. The clubhouse was beautifully decorated with mums, ferns, palms and cut flowers. It wound up school activities for the year.

A BIRTHDAY DINNER

Judge and Mrs. Edward M. Watson entertained at dinner on Thursday evening, the occasion being the hostess' birthday. A basket of lovely American Beauty roses graced the table center and the rooms were filled with cut flowers, the gifts of friends. Music filled the evening hours.

Judge and Mrs. Watson's guests were Mr. and Mrs. John A. Balch, Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Watson, Miss Louise Lucas and Mr. Frank Moss.

A CHILDREN'S MUSICAL

The primary pupils of Mr. Frank Moss gave a well arranged program last Saturday afternoon. Each number was excellent, showing careful training. Probably the best numbers were those by Polly Richards, Mary Louise Love and Virginia Watson.

Mrs. E. Mackall's vocal numbers were very pretty and merited the applause given. Alice Palmer, who was to have played, was ill, so she played on the following morning at the second of Mr. Moss' recitals.

MR. AND MRS. WALTER DILLINGHAM'S CHINESE DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dillingham entertained last Saturday evening at a Chinese dinner in honor of Mrs. James Wilder, who has been so lavishly entertained during her short stay here. The table decorations were entirely Chinese, as were the service and viands. Chinese music made a unique diversion.

Mr. and Mrs. Dillingham's guests were Mrs. James Wilder, Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit P. Wilder, Mr. and Mrs. George Potter, Judge and Mrs. William Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Castle, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Macfarlane, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dillingham, Capt. and Mrs. Louis Beard, Dr. and Mrs. F. Hedemann, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ivers and others.

A JOILY DINNER AT THE PLEASANTON

A very pretty dinner of the younger set was given at the Pleasanton Hotel in the private dining room on Monday evening. The table was attractively decorated with Cecil Bumer roses and lace ferns.

Those who enjoyed this jolly dinner were Miss Ramona Marko, Miss Rachel Woods, Miss Margaret Hawk, Miss Sibyl Carter, Miss Clemence Gifford, Miss Mae Walker, Miss Dorothy Walver, Miss Ilma Woods, Miss Ruth Farrington, Miss Louise Gilvin, Miss Kate Shinglehurst, Miss Katherine Johnson, Mr. J. O. Gilman, Jr., Mr. M. K. Cummins, Mr. F. H. I. Brown, Mr. H. E. Podmore, Mr. N. C. Caum, Mr. Sam N. Carter, Mr. Fred Carter, Mr. P. L. Hind, Mr. Danforth, Mr. L. C. Bush, Mr. Arthur Brown, Jr., Mr. Gavin Bush, and Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Bush.

MISS AGNES MCINTYRE ENTERTAINS

Miss Agnes McIntyre was hostess at a very pleasant lunch honoring Mrs. Laura Wight, who is here now, the guest of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth K. Wilder.

MRS. A. W. T. BOTTOMLEY'S LUNCHEON

Mrs. A. W. T. Bottomley was a luncheon hostess on Wednesday, in honor of Miss Harriet Young.

MRS. GEO. BROWN HONORS MRS. S. W. TAY

Mrs. George B. Brown entertained at an informal tea on Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Samuel W. Tay, who plans to go to the mainland next month.

Mrs. Alexander G. M. Robertson, hostess at a pot supper this week honoring Mayor and Mrs. John C. Lane.

A PRETTY MUSICAL PROGRAM

Mr. Frank Moss' older pupils presented a good musical program on Monday afternoon. Every member was charming, showing the cleverness of the students and the ability of Mr. Moss. The especially good numbers were those presented by Miss Dorothy Hoogs, Miss Chillingworth and Mr. Granville Danforth.

MRS. A. S. CONNINGHAM A TEA HOSTESS

Mrs. A. S. Conningham was hostess at a small informal sewing tea on Friday afternoon. About a dozen guests enjoyed the hospitality of this pleasant home.

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE ANGUS' DINNER PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. George Angus entertained at dinner on Thursday evening at their Nuuanu home. Covers were laid for ten guests.

MRS. CLARENCE OLSON A LUNCHEON HOSTESS

Mrs. Clarence Olson was hostess at a luncheon yesterday, honoring Mrs. C. A. Mackintosh, who leaves next Tuesday for the mainland. A basket of old fashioned garden flowers graced the table center. Before luncheon each was given a miniature bouquet and told to find her place at the table. A duplicate bouquet identified the spot. Knitting formed the afternoon's diversion.

Mrs. Olson's guests were Mrs. C. Arthur Mackintosh, Mrs. Elizabeth Mackall, Mrs. Philip Rodgers, Mrs. Reynold B. McGrew, Mrs. Ernest Ross, Mrs. Myrwin Carson, Mrs. Robert M. and Mrs. Arthur Smith.

MRS. L. E. DAVIS HONORS MRS. S. W. TAY

Mrs. L. E. Davis is giving a sewing tea this afternoon in honor of Mrs. Samuel W. Tay, who is shortly to leave for the mainland. Sewing and knitting will be the diversion for the afternoon. The rooms are to be ornamented with pink begonias and baskets of maidenhair fern. Mrs. Davis' guests are Mrs. S. W. Tay, Mrs. Charles Jude, Mrs. C. O. Bockum, Mrs. Antonio Perry, Mrs. J. H. Varleton, Mrs. E. B. Loomis, Mrs. Philip Frear, Mrs. Archibald Guild, Mrs. Fred Lyser, Mrs. De Wolfe, Mrs. Robert McLean, Mrs. Oscar Phillips, Mrs. Louis Warren, Mrs. John T. Warren, Mrs. George A. Brown, Mrs. Tom Church, Mrs. William Stodart, Mrs. A. I. Compe, Mrs. Charles R. Frasier, Mrs. Osborne, and Miss Mabel Armstrong.

SCAVENIUS RECITAL

One of the musical events of the week was the piano recital by Fritz Scavenius, well known here, at the Lanai theater on the night of June 27. The program was made up largely of Grieg and Chopin numbers, which Mr. Scavenius interpreted effectively. The audience was delighted with the evening.

The program:

'BILLY' SUNDAY DESIRES TO HIT TRAIL TO HAWAII

"Billy Sunday wants to come to Honolulu," said W. A. Bowen, who has just returned from the mainland, before a group of Y. M. C. A. and church officials yesterday. Bowen described his call on Sunday vividly.

"I had the pleasure of meeting Sunday just at the close of a great meeting in New York City, where 17,000 were present and hundreds 'hit the trail.' He was rushed into an ante-room, where he was plunged into a bath and rubbed down like a highly trained athlete.

"While under a cold shower, Sunday told me that he still had a campaign in Honolulu in mind and longed to visit the islands. 'Just get Cooke and everyone of your church leaders back of the invitation and I'll come,' said the great baseball evangelist."

NURSES OF RED CROSS ORGANIZE FOR LOCAL WORK

At a meeting of the Red Cross nurses held at Mrs. Frank J. Dougherty's on Friday evening, June 29, 1917, a local committee was formed, consisting of the following Red Cross nurses: Miss Janet Dewar, Miss Elizabeth Farnsworth, Mrs. P. P. Kellon, Mrs. Frank J. Dougherty, with Miss Agnes Maynard as chairman, and Miss Grace H. Ferguson as secretary.

Any graduate nurses desiring to enroll as members of the Red Cross Nurses' Association should make their application to the secretary of the local committee, Miss Grace H. Ferguson, at the Colonial hotel, Honolulu. The committee, it is announced, will be the connecting link for Hawaii with the national Red Cross nurses' organization, and will be active in case there is any call for Red Cross nurses here to enroll for war duty.
